The Caribbean is a wonderful winter vacation area that is especially convenient for residents of Canada and colder parts of the U.S., who are only a short flight away. Located just south and east of Florida, the Caribbean is an area of many small nations. Tropical islands, crystal clear waters, long beaches, clean air and a delightful mix of cultures make it a great vacation destination for families. Historical sites, like Spanish forts, plantation houses, and shipwrecks, attract vacationers of all ages. Duty free shopping on some islands draws visitors looking for bargains. And on the beaches, sports like water skiing, sailing, snorkeling, and scuba diving keep vacationers busy and happy. Whether you prefer relaxation or activity, you'll enjoy a vacation in the Caribbean.

36. Which of the following is the best title for this passage?

- (A) Vacationers' Paradise – the Caribbean
- (B) Excellent Shopping in the Caribbean
- (C) The Caribbean – a Great Place to Relax
- (D) The Caribbean for Wonderful Sightseeing

37. What is NOT a popular activity in the Caribbean?

- (A) Buying things at low prices
- (B) Visiting old places
- (C) Bargaining with visitors
- (D) Swimming in the ocean

Manners are the ways in which people behave in various situations with other people. If they behave properly, we say that they have good manners, and if they behave badly, we say that they have bad manners. However, what are good manners in one society may be bad manners in another. For example, in one society, it may be good manners for an old man to open a door for a young woman because men should be polite to women in this way; on the other hand, in another society it may be better manners for a young woman to open a door for an old man because young people should be polite to old people in this way. So when you travel to another country, you should learn what are considered good manners there. If you use good manners, you will be a welcome visitor.

38. The word “behave” in line 1 is closest in meaning to

- (A) thank
- (B) read
- (C) have
- (D) act

39. According to this passage, which of the following statements is true?

- (A) Good manners are more important in some societies than in others.
- (B) Ideas about good and bad manners vary from one society to another.
- (C) Good manners in one society are sure to be bad manners in another.
- (D) In one society, good manners may also be bad manners.

40. What does the writer imply in this passage?

- (A) When you visit another country, you may need to behave differently from the way you behave in your own country.
- (B) People in some societies do not correctly understand what are good and bad manners.
- (C) No matter where you go, you will find that it is good manners for young people to treat old people politely.
- (D) Our ideas about manners are basically the same as those of people in other societies.
